

09.15		Reception (Gutenberg entrance) & Coffee
10.00		Welcome & Introduction
10.30	FAUCHER, Thomas & BODET, Alexandre	Survival rate and die productivity of coinage in Antiquity
11.00	DE CALLATAY, François	Survival rates in the Greek world: what could be deduced from the Die Studies Database (DSD)?
11.30 – 11.45		COFFEE BREAK
11.45	ARTRU, Jérémy	Some considerations on the production, circulation and hoarding of Carthaginian gold and silver coins based on survival ratios (5th-3rd c. BC)
12.15	CARBONE, Federico	Survival rates of Cretan silver coins: quantitative data in the light of overstriking and hoarding analyses
12.45 – 14.15		LUNCH
14.15	CARBONE, Lucia & YARROW, Liv	The coinage issued in the years of the Mithridatic years as a case study for a comparison between quantitative data provided by die and hoard studies
14.45	HELLINGS, Benjamin	Ancient Coin Production: Seeking Nuances
15.15	VAN HEESCH, Johan	The survival rate of exceptional Roman gold and silver denominations from the High Empire. What do we really know?
15.45 – 16.00		COFFEE BREAK
16.00	BOMPAIRE, Marc	Les royaux d'or de Charles VII : fabrications, exemplaires et coins
16.30		Conclusions

Venue

KBR – Royal Library of Belgium
Mont des Arts – Kunstberg, 1000 Brussels

KBR is located just across
Brussels Central Station

Registration

Please register through this link:
<https://forms.office.com/e/6uLdUYrvTa?origin=lprLink>

Participation fee: 25€
Student fee: 15€

More information

françois.decallatay@kbr.be